Price List

Again this year my stock of plants is not large. If I am sold out of any variety I will promptly return your money, or you can make a second choice. In no case will I substitute unless requested to do so. Plants guaranteed to reach you in growing condition. Postage extra on all plant orders. If you send $1.00 for postage and it takes only 25c, you will have 75c returned, so please include plenty.

Unless otherwise noted, all plants 15c each. Seeds 10c pkg, and postpaid. All are perennial except as noted: a stands for annual; bi for biennial; r for rockery plants; n for native, and s for shade.

and purple flowers. Doz. lots only, 50c r n.
All that is left of the Olsynium and Viola when dormant
is a small bulb or germ about the size of a grain of wheat
from which radiate roots like the spokes of a wheel, and this is what produces the plant
the following year.

Amaryllis hali, Magic Lily, produces foliage in the early spring, which disappears in June, then about the first week in August the flower stalk appears and in four or five days is two to three feet high with an umbell of lilac-pink lilies shaded with blue. Perfectly hardy, each 25c.

Amaryllis belladonna, similar to above, but blooms later and is clear pink. Needs winter mulching in cold climates. 25c each.

Both the above must be planted in the fall.

Fall blooming Crocus in Aug., 1933, mixed, 75c doz.
